Same first pass, then a large drop — twice gemma-4-31B. Top row marginal, bottom row paired: different populations, different numbers.

“x vs y of n” = discordant problems, recovered under one condition only. The two deltas are two replications of a direction, not one effect measured twice — a test that cannot distinguish them is not evidence that they match.